

COPYRIGHT INTERNET SITES

The following are great links for finding information about copyright in higher education. The KUMC has a very good, concise, general “Copyright Policy”. Washburn also has a well-deserved reputation in higher education for its site, largely developed by its Law School.

--Lists compiled by Robert Walter.

Cornell University – Probably the best comprehensive site available

<http://www.copyright.cornell.edu/index.htm>

Stanford University – Somewhat technical, but good legal information and links

<http://fairuse.stanford.edu>

University of Kansas Medical Center

<http://www2.kumc.edu/copyright/guide.html>

University of Texas

General Policy:

<http://www.utsystem.edu/OGC/IntellectualProperty/copypol.htm>

Crash Course – specific to UT System, but very good thorough information

<http://www.utsystem.edu/OGC/IntellectualProperty/Cprtindx.htm#top>

Washburn University – Especially “Additional Resources” at bottom of page

<http://www.washburn.edu/copyright/faculty/index.html>

Straight from the “Horse’s Mouth” – The United States Copyright Office

<http://www.copyright.gov>

Lists of Sites for Copyright Permissions

Copyright Clearance Center

<http://www.copyright.com/ccc/viewPage.do?pageCode=ac1-n>

American Association of Publishers

http://www.publishers.org/main/Copyright/Copy/CopyRightsPermComittee/copyRightsPermComittee_01_04_01.htm

Portland Community College List

<http://www.pcc.edu/library/reserves/publishers.htm>

Public Domain Scale : <http://librarycopyright.net/digitalslider>

Questions or comments may be directed to:

Robert Walter

Dean of Learning Resources

Pittsburg State University

620-235-4878

bwalter@pittstate.edu