Business Courses in Nanjing*

Yangtze International Study Abroad

Global Management in China

Broaden perspectives on globalizing business and international integration. Enhance analytical and communication skills in approaching and resolving international issues.

The World Trade Center has an office in Nanjing, and you will be two hours by train from Shanghai, the commercial center of East Asia. As a student with YISA you will visit multi-national corporations such as Trane, Ford Motor Company and IBM to learn about and discuss their expansion into China.

Give a boost to your business career

Learn to speak Mandarin in the classrooms of China - the markets, taxis, shopping centers and train stations.
