

中国

China

Geography Courses in Nanjing*

Yangtze International Study Abroad

GEOG 455/555: A Geographical Introduction to China

Covers the physical and human diversity of China, with an emphasis on the historical-geographical evolution of settlement and cultural diversity, agriculture and industry, urbanization and economic growth.

GEOG 455/555: The Urbanization of China

An examination of the growth of the Chinese urban system and the special challenges facing the country's cities.

GEOG 455/555: China's Environmental Problems

Environmental change in China is examined through the lens of rapid social and economic change and their consequences.

GEOG 455/555: China and the Global Economy

Examines the forces behind China's tremendous economic growth and the country's contemporary and future role in the global economy.

Program Fees & Dates

Spring 2008: January 30 to May 28	$8,200
Summer 2008: June 4 to July 23	$4,800
Fall 2008: August 20 to December 18	$8,800

Many types of financial aid that you are receiving at your home university can be applied to the cost of studying in China. Your university may offer discounts for this program or charge additional tuition or application fees. Please contact YISA or your school's Study Abroad office to find out what discount or fees will apply to you.

Program fees include:

- Tuition and books
- Health insurance
- Fully furnished modern apartment in Nanjing
- Official excursions to Beijing, Shanghai, and other locations in China
- Cell phone for calls within China

*Other Courses Available: Full descriptions on-line

Chinese Language at all levels

Political Science

International Business

www.yisa-china.org

Apply on-line at www.yisa-china.org
Questions? Contact Scott Bird
sbird@yisa-china.org - 866.909.5200